CNEA Annual Meeting

This year's CNEA Annual Meeting, will be held on Saturday, April 14th, at Strawberry Banke in Portsmouth, NH.

Due to a number of recent and very exciting discoveries, as well as the development of new and the refinement of existing methodologies, the focus this year will be on Emerging Trends in Paleo Interpretation.

Given the theme of the meeting, it was decided to take this opportunity to celebrate the contribution of Dr. Dena Dincauze to the field, and this meeting will be dedicated to her.

The meeting will be held at the Tyco Visitors' Center at Strawberry Banke starting at 9am with coffee; the talks will run until mid-afternoon, and will be followed by a reception at the Discover Portsmouth Center.

You can pre-register online at cnea-web.org, or by mail at CNEA, PO Box 178, Leverett, MA 01054. You can also register

David Lacy - Green Mountain National Forest

Cost (includes lunch): Members $20.00

Non-members $25.00

Prepayment is not required. Pre-registration is strongly encouraged.

JVA has a New Editor

Niels Rinehart recently moved with his family to Jericho, VT, from Guilderland, NY. He has a Master's degree in Anthropology from SUNY Binghamton and pursued a Doctorate in Anthropology at UMass, Amherst. Niels has been working on cultural resource management projects in the Northeast for over 15 years and, in addition to writing numerous reports and several articles, was an Editor at UMass, Archaeological Services. Niels looks forward to getting to know everyone at the VAS and learning more about the history and archaeology of Vermont.

Anyone interested in submitting an article for the next Journal of Vermont Archaeology should contact Niels at niels_rinehart@hotmail.com.

at the meeting. Annual membership dues, which include conference admission, are $20 ($10 for students).
