The Vermont Archaeological Society Electronic Newsletter

Greetings!

Archaeology of the Missisquoi Delta

Join the Northeast Archaeology Research Center as they conduct investigations along the Missisquoi River and Vermont Route 78 in Swanton, Vermont. In advance of planned road construction, the Vermont Agency of Transportation is providing funding to ensure that significant archaeological sites are studied prior to construction. Two archaeological sites are present along the roadway that document 7,000 years of Native Americans living in the area.

Visitors and volunteers are welcome - come learn about the rich cultural and

Sanborn Partridge, VAS Founding Member, Leaves Bequest to the VAS

Sanborn Partridge, who died earlier this year, has left $5,000 to the VAS in his will.

Sanborn kept up with the activities of the society until the end, requesting the eNewsletter via snail mail since he did not have access to it on-line.

A tribute to Sanborn by Giovanna Peebles appeared in the January issue of the eNewsletter.

His interests were many and varied and the VAS appreciates his thoughtfulness in including the society in his bequests.
